

FIRE AND EMERGENCY REGULATIONS

LEGAL PROVISIONS

Everybody is obligated to act in a way that they do not cause a fire break-out and that they contribute according to their possibilities to an adequate fulfilment of tasks in fire protection.

Especially that they provide necessary personal help in preventing and fighting a fire and other natural disasters.

BASIC DUTIES OF THE VISITOR IN FIRE PROTECTION

1. To follow the "Lodging Regulations of The Cottage Dolní Morava".
2. Smoking and manipulation with open fire is prohibited inside the cottage! Do not throw cigarette stubs and used matches around, neither inside nor in the surroundings of the cottage.
3. Please take the ashes from the burnt wood outside when it is cold and throw it on the compost behind the cottage.
4. Look after the children so that they do not have access to matches and places with fire.
5. Do not store inflammable liquids in the rooms, nor in other inhabitable places.
6. Be very careful in the heating period.
7. Heaters, lights and appliances in operation must not be left without supervision.
8. All roads on the premises must be left freely accessible and must not be obstructed.
9. It is not allowed to relocate and modify heating devices.
10. In case of fire, the persons located on the premises are obligated to comply with the instructions of the authorities related to the fire protection.

DUTY TO REPORT FIRE

1. Each person who notices a fire break-out is obligated to extinguish the fire immediately. If the person cannot extinguish the fire, it is her/his obligation to immediately arouse alarm and call a unit of fire protection.
2. The alarm is aroused by calling "HORI" (On fire!)
